one thing about jesus though he knows how to walk people on the water using the scriptural account of jesus walking peter on the water matthew 14 22 33 as a background metaphor the five practices of walking on water mines the depths of ephesians and colossians to uncover practices and principles by which we will walk hand in hand with jesus through the storms of life whether we are striving to no longer walk like the gentiles or walk in love light and wisdom we find walking worthy of our calling as impossible as peter walking on the water in the middle of a storm while peter only walked on water because jesus is good at walking people on water peter had to get out of the boat he had to rely on and respond to jesus s command to come onto the water we will walk worthy of our calling not because we are good at walking but because jesus is good at walking us in light love and wisdom however to walk on water we like peter have to get out of the boat that is we have to hear jesus s instructions and respond by faith to what he says the principles which make up the five practices are the practical ways we rely on the grace of jesus to walk on the water throughout these storms of life the five practices of walking on water is a scripturally based discussion oriented class providing practical tools for spiritual growth and maturity to overcome sin and find victory together as we encourage one another to keep looking to jesus while we walk through the storms of life
